Public Comments

- Gail Brice mentioned that she would like Dana Rohrbacher to hold town hall meetings with regard to the Affordable Care Act. She has been unsuccessful in contacting Representative Rohrbacher and asked if the SBCA board would contact his office to request town hall meetings.

Updates

Courtney Radcliffe showed the artwork for the newest light pole banner along the greenbelt. This is the third banner she has completed, and the iconic image is of the Sunset Beach Post Office.

Tony Nobles associate, Rick, volunteered to put the banners up on the light posts.

LCP Update:

- Tim McCormack, LCP Chair, stated that the process for California Coastal Commission approval of the Sunset Beach Specific Plan has not progressed. It is moving extremely slowly.

Guest Speaker

Greg Griffin gave a very interesting presentation on the history and development of the Bolsa Chica wetlands. He discussed Native American settlement and travel through the area, as well as more current history. His presentation was fascinating and well presented.
